My Doctor Said

"Try Cardui," writes Mrs. Z. V. Spell, of Hayne, N. C. "I was in a very low state of health, and was not able to be up and tend to my duties. I did try Cardui, and soon began to feel better. I got able to be up and help do my housework. I continued to take the medicine, and now I am able to do my housework and to care for my children, and I feel as though I could never praise Cardui enough for the benefits I have received."

TAKE CARDUI The Woman's Tonic

Cardui is successful, because it is made especially for women, and acts specifically on the womanly constitution. Cardui does one thing, and does it well. That explains the great success which it has had, during the past 50 years, in helping thousands of weak and ailing women back to health and happiness.

If you are a woman, feel tired, dull, and are nervous, cross and irritable, it's because you need a tonic. Why not try Cardui? Cardui builds, strengthens, restores, and acts in every way as a special, tonic remedy for women. Test it for yourself. Your druggist sells Cardui. Ask him.

Sheffield, Alabama

A few lines from an old Tennessean but new a resident of Alabama.

The Herald is a welcome weekly visitor, as I get the news from my old native home through its columns.

Sheffield like many other iron manufacturing towns is not as lively just now as we would like to see it. Our blast furnaces five in number are all idle now as is the rolling mill and pipe works.

"Uncle Sam" is spending quite a sum of money on the Tennessee river here at Sheffield blasting and dredging out a channel so the boats can run all the year around and when the river is open for navigation it will be of a great benefit as we will have cheaper freight rate.

Well most of the farmers in our section are nearly through gathering their crops.

Cotton one of the main crops here was damaged quite a bit by the catapillar, yet there was quite a lot gathered. The corn crop was fairly good here, and is selling at a very good price. Our farmers do not raise wheat, rye, or oats like the Tennessee farmers do. Yet the low price of cotton is going to cause a diversification of crops in the future.

Colbert county held its first county fair in October and there was quite an interest manifested among the farmers in the agricultural products as the prizes were worth competing for and another year there will be lots more interest displayed.

The racing feature of the fair was quite a drawing card, even if we did have to watch the Tennessee horses win most all of the prizes.

I do not wish to discourage the Cookeville managers of the Putnam county fair, but if don't get a move on them the Colbert county fair association will pull off a better fair than they do.

If this escapes the waste basket you may hear from me again

Route Seven

Bud Burroughs of Cookeville, Route 8, went to White county last week and married the widow Anderson. She has six children and Mr. Burroughs has one. They will move to Mr. Burroughs farm on Blackburns Fork soon.

The singing at Dotsons Branch last Sunday was a complete failure and the dinner too.

George Gentry has sold his farm to Ed Williams.

Will Terry was in this section last week on business.

H. C. Gentry will move to John Lanes farm soon.

Ed Williams broom factory is doing good business in this section.
